WHERE THE MEMBERSHIP FEES GO

Membership fees go directly to supporting the work of CAM and NCIM to deliver relevant programming to members and to advocate for the sustainability and growth of the profession. This includes:

- › Ongoing publication of the Canadian Journal of Midwifery Research and Practice (CJMRP) – the only peer-reviewed scientific journal dedicated to midwifery in Canada. <https://www.cjmrp.com/>
- › Ongoing advocacy and policy work to advance midwifery and to influence policy changes and increase investments to integrate midwifery into health systems at various levels.
- › National initiatives such as advocating for midwife-led abortion care, publication of position statements, participation on federal committees and government consultations and much more.
