Full time locum midwife position available

June 1/18 to Nov 30/18

We are looking for an experienced and enthusiastic midwife to join our team. Highland Community Midwives are a shared care team of two midwives employed with the Nova Scotia Health Authority. Our clinic and birth unit are located in St. Martha's Regional Hospital. We have a low risk birth room in the hospital that offers a home like setting for our distance clients. We enjoy positive working relationships with our team of obstetricians, nurses, LC's and public health nurses and enjoy serving a diverse population. Additional satellite clinics are located in Guysborough and Port Hawkesbury. We have a large catchment and area provide care to women in Antigonish and Guysborough counties as well as many areas of Cape Breton.

Antigonish, the "Highland Heart of Nova Scotia", is a small university town in a rural community, close to many beautiful parks and beaches- close enough that you can enjoy them even while on call! There is a strong sense of community in the town and county, with a busy farmers market, vibrant art/music scene and plenty of family-friendly activities throughout the year. Antigonish is located approximately 2 hours away from the city of Halifax.

Our shared model of care offers a 50% on call schedule with alternating weekends off and 4 weeks of vacation per year. We book caseload of up to 35 clients per year per midwife. This is a salaried position and pay is scaled to experience level.

The ideal candidate will have:

- A minimum of 3 years experience as a full time practicing midwife.
- Current CPR, NRP and emergencies skills training.
- Experience in practice development and management.
- A positive attitude and excellent communication and collaboration skills.
- An understanding of the employee model of midwifery care and midwifery in Nova Scotia.
