About MRU

Founded in 1910 and located in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, Mount Royal University has built a reputation on a strong, liberal education foundation. Our vision is to provide an exceptional undergraduate educational experience for our students.

We are a community of engaged citizens, providing personalized, experiential and outcome-based learning in an environment of inclusion, diversity and respect. Through our focus on teaching and learning informed by scholarship, we are preparing our graduates for success in their careers and lives.

Mount Royal University presently offers 12 four-year baccalaureate degrees with 32 majors, with a view to grow this mix to 15 degrees and 60 majors by 2025. Current degree offerings are unique, and include four-year bachelor degrees in interior design, midwifery, child studies and health and physical education, as well as arts, criminal justice, business administration, communication, computer information systems, education, nursing and science. Mount Royal also offers robust continuing education programming as well as an internationally-renowned music conservatory.

More than 13,000 credit students attend Mount Royal University annually, with more than 90,000 Mount Royal alumni contributing to their communities worldwide.

Our faculty provide a teaching and learning environment that welcomes challenging ideas. Our staff are dedicated to supporting our campus so that students are provided with an exceptional educational experience. Our management team provides leadership throughout the University, and inspires others at all levels to be leaders in their own important sectors.

In support of our students, and in response to our broader community, we know that investing in our employees benefits the University as a whole. Talented and committed employees are the driving force behind student success. Our faculty, staff and management are united in creating a thriving learning environment for our students.

Mount Royal University is an exceptional community focused on our people.

About the School of Nursing and Midwifery

A leader in innovative teaching strategies and outstanding practical instruction, Mount Royal University's School of Nursing and Midwifery prepares students to make a difference in the health and well-being of Canadians.

The School of Nursing and Midwifery offers the following programs: Bachelor of Nursing, Bachelor of Midwifery, the Bridge to Canadian Nursing and the Advanced Studies in Critical Care Nursing Certificate.

About the Role

The School of Nursing and Midwifery invites applications for a tenure track or tenured position in the Bachelor of Midwifery program, which will commence July 1, 2018, or a date to be negotiated, subject to final budgetary approval. Preference will be given to candidates at the Assistant Professor level, presuming there is appropriate academic experience. Priority will be given to candidates with experience in midwifery education.

The School of Nursing and Midwifery currently offers degree programs in Midwifery and Nursing, a distance certificate program for registered nurses and a bridging program for internationally educated nurses. The successful applicant will be able to teach all levels of theory and clinical in the Midwifery program.

All job postings are developed jointly by the hiring unit and Human Resources. Human Resources has final authority and approval on all postings. The posting draft should be sent erecruiter@mtroyal.ca when the requisition within eRecruiter is created.

New faculty are hired into one of two work patterns. The teaching/scholarship/service pattern has a focus on teaching with the requirement that the faculty member be involved in a research program as well as service to the Mount Royal community. The teaching/service pattern has a focus on teaching and service only. There is an option to change work patterns only after tenure.

The successful applicant must be qualified to teach all levels of midwifery courses and participate in course and program revisions and development. The leadership and experience necessary to serve as a program coordinator is preferred. Active engagement in the midwifery community in Alberta is an expectation. Relevant and current certification and immunizations for the practice area (including Alberta Health Services) are required.

A Ph. D. in Midwifery or related field is preferred; a Master's degree is required. The successful candidate should have a minimum of 5 years current Midwifery experience. The successful candidate must be eligible for and maintain registration with the College of Midwives of Alberta. Applicants interested in the teaching/scholarship/service pattern should have the ability and intent to pursue a research program.

To Apply: Please Visit Our Career Opportunities Page

Closing Date: February 15, 2018

A complete dossier should be submitted including curriculum vitae, list of three (3) references, evidence of teaching excellence, and, if the teaching/ scholarship/ service (TSS) pattern is desirable, evidence of intent to pursue a research program.

We thank all applicants for their interest. Only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted. After the close date, you can check on the status of your application through your Career Centre. New career opportunities arise frequently and are posted as they become available. Please check back often to view our latest postings on our Career Opportunities page. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Mount Royal University hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to fostering diversity as a source of excellence, intellectual and cultural enrichment, and social strength. We welcome applications from those who would contribute to the further diversification of our staff, faculty and their scholarship including but not limited to Indigenous Peoples, women, persons with disabilities and persons of any sexual or gender identity, ethnic, national or socio-economic background, religion or age.
