The Midwives Collective is hiring a midwife locum for a 12-month educational leave, May 1, 2019- May 1, 2020, with the possibility of an extension. Exact dates are flexible.

The Midwives Collective is a busy 5-midwife practice on the edge of downtown Victoria. We have excellent administrative support and use Oscar EMR. The locum will work full time in a shared-care model with regular time off-call and paid holidays.

We work out of a beautiful clinic within a medical building, and support one another with regular chart reviews. We value clear communication and a sense of humour, and are looking for a midwife who is hardworking and enthusiastic.

Hospital privileges are at Victoria General Hospital, a tertiary care facility with 24-hour obstetrical services and a Level 3 NICU. We are a teaching practice and regularly precept UBC midwifery students.

Desired Qualifications:

- Preferably 1+ year clinical midwifery experience, but will consider new graduates.
- Qualified to work in British Columbia
