Located along the Fraser River, New West Community Midwives is an inclusive midwifery practice currently with a team of two midwives sharing 8-10 clients per month. We alternate weeks on-call and three days in clinic with three, fully protected days off (1 week on-call, 3 days clinic, 1 day 2nd call (we are rarely called to 2nd), 3 days off). We serve the communities of New Westminster, Burnaby, Tri-cities and the Whalley area of Surrey.

New West Community Midwives is located within walking distance of Sapperton Skytrain station, Life Labs, Shoppers Drug Mart, Save-On Foods and several eateries and coffee shops and within Mountainview Health and Wellness. We share a clinic with massage, physio, and Traditional Chinese Medicine/acupuncture practitioners and share receptionists but have our own off-site administration assistant.

Our clinic is just across the street from Royal Columbian Hospital, a level three maternity care centre and our primary site where we have good working relationships with other RCH midwives, nurses, and OBs. A successful applicant will be motivated to be an active part of the RCH maternity care team and possess excellent communication skills. We hold back-up privileges at Burnaby General Hospital, a level two maternity care centre.
