ORGANIZATIONAL PROFILE

The Midwives Association of British Columbia (MABC) is the professional association for midwives in BC and is registered under the Societies Act. Registered midwives are primary maternity care providers who are experts in low-risk pregnancy and birth. They have extensive medical training that specializes in pregnancy, birth and postpartum care for mothers and babies. Midwifery is a safe, recognized and growing choice for maternity care in BC and around the world. Universal access to midwifery services is an essential part of health care in BC.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Reporting directly to the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, is responsible for leading, planning and directing the strategic, service and funding objectives of the Association required to achieve the organization's vision, mission, goals and values. The Chief Executive Officer has direct oversight of operations including staff leadership, financial administration and the delivery of programming, including education programs and professional services. The Chief Executive Officer builds and maintains strong relationships with the Board, staff, membership, broader community and government leaders and officials.

This is an excellent opportunity for a politically savvy and astute visionary with a solid understanding of non-profit leadership and/or healthcare in British Columbia. The successful candidate will have a master's level degree, with progressive management and leadership skills. The role requires excellent interpersonal, negotiation and communication skills along with demonstrated financial acumen, governance and project management skills. An equivalent combination of education and experience will be considered.
