

Dawson Creek, BC

Bloom Pregnancy & Wellness Clinic is seeking a full time Registered Midwife to serve as a practice partner in a two-midwife rural practice in northeast BC.

Enjoy the northern hospitality, easygoing lifestyle, and hardy pioneer spirit as you discover the many treasures in and around Dawson Creek a town that boasts with low cost of living, excellent access to outdoor recreation, and a warm and welcoming community.

- Flexible start date around July, 2020 for 1 year with the potential to stay.
- Remuneration as per MSP fees, with deductible low overhead compared to urban practices.
- Hospital site is a 1A level hospital with a supportive inter-professional team including obstetrician, physicians, nurses, nurse-practitioner.
- Strong and respectful inter-professional relationships.
- Diverse population
- Supported primary care model with every other weekend off call and regular holidays. Potential for change based on midwife preferences.
- 15 RMLP days per midwife subsidized at the rural rate.
- Potential for 20% annual loan forgiveness on BC Student Loan.
- Northern Resident Tax deduction for each day living/working in the north.

Rural midwifery is an adventure and opens doors to clinical and community opportunities not common in more urban locations. Dawson Creek is a unique location with very friendly people. Midwives have access to an active, rich, and affordable lifestyle while being able to take part in rewarding interprofessional teams and enhancing a community that would otherwise have limited options for maternity care.
