Other Information

Surrey Mama Midwifery is recruiting for a Full time or Part time midwife to join our practice. Start date would be from May but there will be flexibility with the start date for the right candidate.

Full time midwifery privileges vacancies is posted in our community. Locum opportunities is also available.

If a full-time candidate can not be found, Surrey Mama Midwifery is also interested if a locum be contracted for June, July and August 2019.

Any local midwives who already have privileges at Surrey memorial Hospital or new registrants want to join us that would also be awesome.

We are a group of 4 full time and part time midwives , sharing 24 hours calls and clinic with privileges at Surrey Memorial Hospital and Peace Arch Hospital. We enjoy good relations and support from nursing and physician colleagues. Our 24 hrs call schedule allows for easier midwifery care, a great work/life balance and time off. With one more midwife joining us would be possible to have 12 hrs call schedules.

We are a group of experienced midwives who value teamwork, support, work-life balance and honest communication.

Surrey is fast growing diverse city with lots of young families.
