

Skeena Midwives

Hazelton, BC

Skeena Midwives is seeking a 2 month locum in our rural and rewarding 2 midwife practice.

Skeena Midwives boasts a competitive salary payment model, incredible inter-professional relationships, and low caseload with financial sustainability. Our practice serves a primarily Indigenous clientele in a rural/remote setting with strong and resilient communities.

Details:

- 1 full time registered midwife August 15 - October 31 2021 (start date flexible)
- $120,000 plus mileage annual salary
- Shared care call model
- Affordable housing and living expenses
- Warm and welcoming community
- Strong inter-professional team
- 1A primary hospital site in Hazelton (Wrinch Memorial Hospital)
- Privileges in Smithers, BC at BVDH (level 1B)
- Involvement in RCCBC's RSON and ROAM projects

Skeena Midwives is based in stunning Hazelton, BC. This area offers an affordable and active lifestyle ripe with opportunities for personal and professional adventures. Rural/remote midwifery opens doors to clinical and community opportunities not common in urban populations. Practicing with Skeena Midwives often means assisting low-resourced clients navigate social systems to access optimal care. We are proud to head a midwifery-led maternity program at Wrinch Memorial Hospital and belong to a respectful and supportive interprofessional team of physicians, nurses, and nurse-practitioners.

Ideal applicant attributes:

- Experience working rurally or remotely
- Experience working with Indigenous populations
- Understanding of and commitment to cultural safety
- San'yas Cultural Safety Training Course (or willing to take this)

Interested midwives should send their applications (CV and letter of interest) to Hana Lang, RM & Carmen Wiebe, RM (non-practising). Please feel free to email either of us with any questions.

carmentw03@gmail.com or hanarae@gmail.com

